Aria Nichols Press Release

November 2017 marked Aria Nichols' debut, with her single 'See Where This Goes'. A highly-creative burst of contrasting emotions merging together angelic vocal dexterities with a moody Trap instrumental. The emotional lyrical hooks create a dream-like atmosphere that precedes Don Fuego's devastating drops. The result: a high quality rollercoaster ride of production that will have you hooked from the first play.

'See Where This Goes' is the first of a series of breathtaking Aria Nichols creations that will hit the shelves in the months to come – keep an eye out!
